Sub: Nomination of Mr. Roshan Kumar Singh as Co-Convener of Administration

We are pleased to announce that Mr. Roshan Kumar Singh has been nominated as the Co-Convener of Administration for Indian Centre for Child and Human Rights (ICCHR). In this new role, he will be responsible for managing the administrative activities of ICCHR and running ground projects.

Mr. Singh has been associated with ICCHR since its inception and has demonstrated his leadership abilities and has been a valuable asset to the organisation. We believe that his experience and expertise will enable him to take on this new responsibility with ease.

The nomination of Mr. Singh as the Co-Convener of Administration will take effect immediately. We urge all the members of the organisation to extend their full support to him in his new role. We are confident that under his leadership, ICCHR will continue to grow and make a significant impact in the field of Child and Human Rights.

We wish Mr. Singh prosperity and good luck in his new role.

Regards,
